Dear brother Goodpasture:

I deeply regret that I did not get a chance to visit with you during my recent trip through Tennessee. We only got to spend part of a day in Nashville and other responsibilities prevented my getting over to the Advocate.

I made a sudden and last minute change of plans regarding my work, as badly as I felt the need, personally, of going on to school at this time. I could not deny the opportunity and the need that exists here in the Highland congregation. I have the kind of relationship with my elders and see the potential of this congregation that made me decide to remain in Abilene rather than moving to Atlanta as planned.

Enclosed you will find two articles that you may be able to use in the forthcoming issues of the Advocate. Thank you so much for the inspiration and encouragement you have continued to give to all of us through the Advocate and through your own personal faith and life. I treasure the advise and encouragement you have given me through the years.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
